Beyond the crisscrossed maze
of brick walkways,
the ivy-hugged, snug walls,
the Square,
our Salem world extends itself
to meet a wider world.
We are here;
we are there,
involved, evolving.

We seek to serve,
participate, appreciate,
encounter
and transact.
Our battle is with apathy,
a quiet revolution.

We are Salem's energy,
enthusiasm
vented through involvement.

We sense an omnipresent challenge
through our interaction
with a world
beyond the classroom.
We contemplate our time of turbulence,
perceive tomorrow's history,
a heritage,
which we shall help to shape.

Chatter over cups of coffee,
a controversial question raised,
a lingering applause,
faces mirrored in the lily pond;
a hand goes up . . .
debate . . .
a sifting of opinions.

We respond
to an informality
that often leaves
enlightenment
in its wake.

As we pursue
the limelight of involvement,
We sometimes leave the Square
to follow
dictates
of our interests
and our talents.

Sharing
 something
 of ourselves,
 we return
 with something to be shared.

Ours is a role
of innovative action;
We bring the world to Salem
and share Salem
with the world.
We step outside ourselves,
involved, evolving.

An office door always open . . . a face well known . . . a smile and a wave from behind a desk piled high . . . willing to listen to even the smallest problems . . .

She came with the best credentials—
vitality, eagerness, understanding, and her own ski equipment . . .

keenly aware and enthusiastically interested . . .
she embodies student, faculty, and administrative ideals . . .

her day begins early and rarely ends at five . . .

her hours filled with new problems and endless meetings . . .

channeling student interest into action, she is ever open to new ideas . . .

Trusting in students and their responsible judgment, she has brought to Salem a creative spirit . . . from tennis shoes to high heels . . .

a dynamic personality, loved by all.

Entrusting to you our tradition of involvement and change, we the Seniors of 1969 dedicate this, our tribute to Salem, to you . . . Dean Virginia Johnson.

Events

Salem's tribute to—

Fifty years of:

chef's hat
fried chicken
Kitchen Party
Orphans' Santa Claus
Founders' Day Picnic
two worn-out kitchens

—service to Salem

"Life is a mirror of kings and slaves—
It's just what you are and do.
So give to the world the best that you have,
And the best will come back to you."

This is our future—
Salem our pride.
This is her tribute—
Spread far and wide.
Our sisterhood forever,
We're living Salem's way
To build in years coming
The hopes of today.
